Case No.: SA12-0299M

ORDER OF REVOCATION AND
DETENTION AFTER HEARING
[18 U.S.C. 3148(B)]

The defendant having been arrested in this District pursuant to a warrant and related order issued by the Honorable C. Weston Houck, United States District Judge, of the United States District Court for the District of South Carolina, and the Court having conducted a hearing on the alleged violation(s), the Court finds as follows:

- (1)() A. there is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed a Federal, State, or local crime while on release; or
- (X) B. there is clear and convincing evidence that the defendant violated his conditions of release by disconnecting and removing his electronic monitoring device on December 29, 2011, failing to report to Pretrial Services as directed, and absconding from pretrial supervision; and
- (2)(X) A. that based on the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. §3142(g), there is no condition or

1 combination of conditions of release that will assume that the defendant will not
2 flee or pose a danger to the safety or any other person or the community; or
3 (X) B. that the defendant is unlikely to abide by any condition or combination of 4 conditions of release.

5 () and/or in the event of (1)(A):

6 (3)() that the defendant has not rebutted the presumption that no condition or 7 combination of conditions will assure that the person will not pose a danger to the 8 safety of any other person or the community.

9 (4)() that there are conditions of release that will assure that the defendant will not flee
10 or pose a danger to the safety of any other person or the community, and that the 11 defendant will abide by such conditions. See separate order setting conditions.

12 () This Order shall be stayed for 72 hours in order to allow the Government to seek 13 review from the District Judge assigned to this case or assigned to handle this 14 matter by virtue of being on criminal duty.

15
16 (X) IT ORDERED that the defendant's prior pretrial release is revoked and the defendant
17 is detained prior to trial.
